LIFE OR DEATH

Is often rolled up in a prescription. The greatest doctor in the world may write it, but if the druggist doesn't do his part, or does it wrong, the doctor is useless.

We don't claim any extraordinary virtue, but we can truthfully say that compounding prescriptions is the work we do best in life. It isn't a little thing either. Every drug must be perfectly fresh—directions followed with scrupulous care. Bring us your prescriptions.

"And the nights shall be filled with music,
And the cares that infest the day
Shall fold up their tents like the Arabs,
And as silently steal away."
Longfellow knew the soothing power of music; he knew its grand influence for good. A home without a piano or music of some sort doesn't seem quite a home; something seems to be wanting. It's easy enough to have music in the house nowadays. Pocket your doubts, and come to us. We'll soon show you the way.
